

It is with great excitement that the CDHS band program announces the student leaders for the 2010-2011 school year. Over the past four years leadership development has been one of the major goals of the band program, and the class of 2010 has demonstrated just how effective strong student leaders can be.

Leadership is very important to the band program because it unites the band family as a whole. There will be over 170 students in the total band program next year, and many of the younger members do not have the experience or the knowledge that the older members do. Just by displaying solid examples of hard work, positive attitude, and an enjoyment in music, the leaders of the band make the entire program better, stronger, and more enjoyable.

Leadership is also vital to the strong tradition of pride in the band. The Central Dauphin band has been at the core of the high school from the days that the doors first opened. The Central Dauphin band has maintained a tradition of being leaders in the school, community, and in music. This incoming class of student leaders has a strong sense of pride and a great commitment to the band, the school, and the community.

The leadership teams for next school year are strong, engaged, and excited. They have shown themselves to be great musicians, great students, and great people. The possibilities for the band program are great because of these young leaders. Congratulations to them!
